7 Productivity

We have the following metrics that we tracked to ensure optimal productivity from each team member

- Attendance: 95% of all team meetings
- Commits: At least 3 meaningful commits per Deliverable (Meaningful means: 10-15 lines of code (minimum) changed per commit)
- Confirm review of all documents prior to submission
- Confirm review of all rubric criteria prior to submission

As of March 26th 2025, all Productivity criteria have been met.

- Attendance: 95% of all team meetings
All team members have been to 100% of team meetings.
- Commits: At least 3 meaningful commits per Deliverable (Meaningful means: 10-15 lines of code (minimum) changed per commit).

Within this period of interest, we have had the V&V Report and Revision 0. A minimum of 3 commits were achieved for each deliverable. Additionally, minimum 3 commits were achieved by each group member per deliverable.

Each team member's total number of commits is well above 6 (3 V&V Report + 3 revision 1), with an average of 53 commits across team members.

- Confirm review of all documents prior to submission
All team members met in person to confirm review of all documents and deliverables prior to submission
- Confirm review of all rubric criteria prior to submission
All team members met in person to confirm review of all documents and deliverables prior to submission while comparing it to the rubric criteria
